About Carbondale New School

Carbondale New School is a progressive, independent, not-for-profit private school for Students Pre-K through 8th grade. At New School, we understand that students have a variety of learning styles, and individual personalities are encouraged and respected. Students are in mixed grade classes and are encouraged to develop at their own pace and progress beyond their current level.

Locally Grown Music Festival is our way to celebrate our community. The festival includes music, food, drinks, games and activities for children. Please consider taking part in this great event by becoming a sponsor. Sponsorships are tax deductible.
