General Information :

There is a board meeting on Monday, November 23rd. We will be discussing the possibility of going remote. If you have an opinion, I encourage you to get involved, attend the virtual meeting, and speak up.

Everyone has signed up for student-led conferences. Thank you.

REPEATED INFORMATION:

Our class is collecting canned goods to donate to a local food pantry. There is a flyer in each student's folder. This is a great way to help our community and families in need.-Last day is Monday, November 23rd.

CNS offers remote learning for any families wishing to keep their child at home. If you are interested in remote learning please contact me.

Don't forget to pre-order your cookbook. $15
Just contact Kerianna and she will get one ordered for you.
