This week in PreK-K

Letter Focus: f, g, h, i, j – Recognition and formation

Poetry Journal: This week's poem was the refrain section of Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star. We looked for letters we know in this classic poem.

Writing: All students are now writing in their writing journals each week. We are practicing drawing a detailed picture and trying to add at least one label for our pictures.

Reading: We are continuing learning letters and sounds and then applying them in our writing. We have begun to listen to short chapter books each day. Two favorites are Mercy Watson and Henry and Mudge.

Math: This week we started our math journals. We are covering lots of standards in our journals including addition and subtraction as well as shape attributes and counting on.

Art: The children did a fantastic job making collage self-portraits!

A few reminders...

- Today is the last day to place a Scholastic book order to help our class take advantage of the HUGE back-to-school bonus point offer from Scholastic.
- Remember to bring in any donations you have for the Wright Way Animal Shelter fundraiser – we are still collecting for this great cause!
- Remember to check the weather each morning – if rain (not thunderstorms) is forecast we may still go outside for a wet recess so please send a raincoat with your child. We will change clothes afterwards.

Students model math solutions first with Unifix cubes, then draw them in their math journals.

Our collage portraits used drawing, cutting, and gluing skills and were a hit with kids and adults alike!
