Ms. Laura and Ms. Melissa

This week in PreK-K

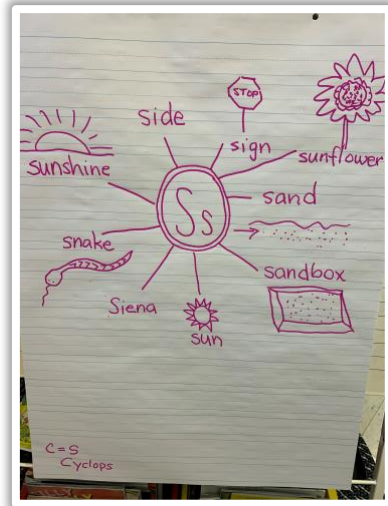

Letter Focus: m and s – sound

Writing: Our class had an exciting authentic writing experience this week – Secret Buddy letters! Each of the student received a letter and each student responded by creating a card and decorated envelope and helped to write a written response as well.

Reading: We began guided reading with some students this week. We finished reading aloud the first six books of the Henry and Mudge series.

Math: In our math journals we are continuing to work out a variety of CGI problems including regrouping (simple division) and addition as the foundation for multiplication. In Kindergarten math we are focusing on numbers 6 and 7.

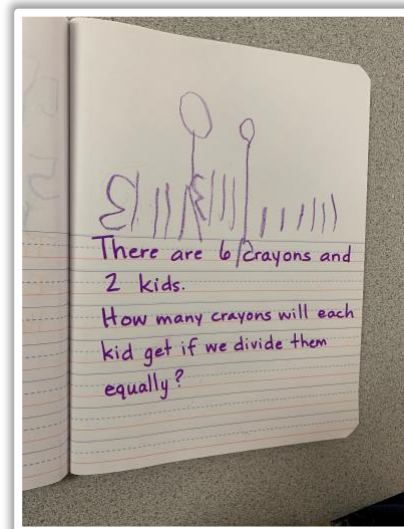

Art: This week was part one of a two-part project. The students used dry tempera paints to paint large marigold flowers. Next week they will add the petal markings, which will bring a 3-D effect. These will become part of our Day of the Dead display.

Students suggest words that begin with the sound /s/ for our Ss chart

A few notes...

- Thank you for sending some really healthy and varied lunch and snack choices with your children the last two weeks!
- Please check your child's red Backpack Communication Folder. Inside you will find the order form for the school pictures taken this week. Also, there is another coupon from McDonalds for a free hamburger for your child.
- We will now be providing remote learning on any day that school is cancelled due to inclement weather. In order to be prepared for this, I am preparing a folder for your child that will be sent home within the next two weeks. It will need to be kept at home until (and if) needed on a snow day. It will contain everything you need to complete several activities together for your remote learning day. Thank you, in advance, for your support with this.
